SONG OF THE "QUEEN'S OWN"
RIFLES.

Up, comrades, up! 'tis our bugle—
The assembly, it sounds loud and clear ;
Of time, as of fare, let's be frugal,
And on with our old fighting gear.
Though our feet be sore with the marching,
And hunger won't leave us alone,
Though with thirst our lips be parching,
We're prepared—are we not—Queen's Own ?

CHORUS :

Though our feet be sore with the marching,
And hunger won't leave us alone,
Though with thirst our lips be parching,
We're prepared—are we not—Queen's Own ?

II.

On! Comrades, On! travel faster ;
On! not a moment's delay ;
'Twill bring but disgrace and disaster,
And may make many sad hearts to-day.
On our quick march, perchance, are depending
Victory and the lives of the brave ;
The quicker—the sooner it's ending,
And rest comes with peace or the grave.

CHORUS.

Then, though feet be sore with the marching,
And hunger won't leave us alone ;
Though with thirst our lips be parching,
We will march—will we not—Queen's Own ?

III.

Home! comrades, home! rifles slinging,
Hearts bounding high with delight ;
Flags are flying, the joy bells are ringing,
As they welcome us home from the fight.
Now off to our peaceful vocations,
The workshop, the desk, or the gown ;
We are sure of good quarters and rations,
Till the next time they need the Queen's Own.

CHORUS.

Now off to our peaceful vocations,
The workshop, the desk, or the gown ;
We are sure of good quarters and rations,
Till the next time they need the Queen's Own.
