DEC. 28, 1915

On the above day the members of the Maple Leaf Club held their Annual Fowl Shoot.

There were 16 members present and 8 guests. The names of the guests were: W. Giles, A. Montgomery, E. Matthews, G. Gilchrist, H. Hancock, G. Atwell, W. Cameron.

The weather was fine and there was some very good shooting as well as some decidedly rotten scores.

The Turkeys were won by W. Dow, G. Perry, ~~J. White~~ and G. Crichton.

Those who showed a preference for Geese were: G. Brooks, G. Cluff, E. Matthews, W. Giles, ~~A. Pearce and~~ G. Perry and J. White.

* After the shoot Sergt. Cook W. Meadows and his staff announced supper to which more than due justice was done.

After supper there was the usual game of Progressive Euchre after which the party broke up in good order.

* And after grave deliberation the remainder announced their decided preference for chicken.

The Annual Shoot Saturday, Dec. 20, 1919

On the above date the members held their Annual Shoot at the Rifle Ranges and despite the absence of the cup that cheers, a most enjoyable afternoon and evening was spent.

The following were present:
 Messrs. Hutcheson, Brighten, Meadows,
 Matthews, Atkins, White, Reed, Brooks,
 Rosebatch, Hartman, Taylor, Moore,
 Peake, Keating, Cook, Foster, McLeod,
 Greenfield, ^{Eliot} Menzie and Lucas. Also
 3 guests: Messrs. Rook, Gardiner and Williams.

~~Five~~ members were absent: Messrs
 Dow (in hospital), Perry (in Europe),
 Cliff (business), Philip (business) and Bickers.

The weather was exceptionally fine and there were a few good scores made, as well as some.

weird ones. This no doubt being due to the fact that no one used the same rifle twice.

In the first Match Messrs. McKee and Hutcheson were the winners.

In the second match Messrs. Rooke and Lucas captured the Geese and the remainder had to be content with the ducks and chicken.

In the Sweepstakes Peake was 1st. White 2nd and Hartman, Brighton and Menzie shared 3rd honors.

Supper was then served by Chief Cook Meadows and his assistants to which due justice was done and after that there was the usual Progressive Luck. Messrs Lucas and Menzianneping first and second and Frank Foster having the dubious honor of capturing the other one. After which everyone took their departure.

The Annual Shoot

Dec. 18th, 1920

On the above date, the members assembled at the Ranges for the Annual Shoot and the weather was exceptionally fine.

There were 20 members present and 4 guests. The members present being: - Messrs. Hutcheson, Crighton, Atkins, Matthews, White, Dow, Reed, Meadows, Rosebatch, Brooks, Peray, Philip, Dwyer, Peake, Keatings, Cook, Foster, McLeod, Menzie and Lucas.

The guests were: Messrs. Rooke, Williams, Bull and Dempster.

The following members were absent: Messrs. Granfield (sick) Bickers (business), Cliff, Eliot, Moore & Hartman.

This year there were four matches. The first prize in Matches Nos. 1 and 2 being a goose. The third was an Aggregate of the first two to decide the standing of the 4 members.

In the Aggregate first two matches Messrs. Hutcheson and Crighton captured the Goose and in the Aggregate Messrs. Williams and McLeod took the Turkey and the Goose, while the remainder expressed a decided preference for Chicken.

After this there was a Sweepstake for 1 Chicken and money prizes and Keatings showed very plainly that he liked chicken by putting on the highest score of the day - 25-11. The other prize-winners in this match were Messrs. Hutcheson, Peake, Lucas, Dow and Williams, in the order named.

The shooting was finished by 4.30 and no one was handicapped by lack of light.

After this the supper was served by the Chief Cook and his staff of assistants, and as usual, nearly everyone had to loosen up their slaps.

After the supper the Sec Treasurer's report for the preceding shoot was read and adopted, and the following officers were elected:

President - Capt. Hitchcock
 Sec. Treasurer - G. D. Atkins
 Committee: Messrs. Meadows, Matthews, Perry, White and Dow.

Following this there was considerable discussion on the rifles used and finally it was left for the new Committee to decide. It was moved by J. White, sec. by G. Brooks that G. Weir be placed on the waiting list.
 Then followed the usual game of carried Progressive Euchre and Messrs. Rook and Lucas took 1st and 2nd prizes, and Chief Cook Meadows had the honor of taking the other one.

Then, after a most enjoyable day, everyone took their departure for home.
