BOOK OF REMEMBRANCE

The Regimental Memorial Committee responsible for the "memorial program" which was initiated in the year marking the 50th anniversary of D Day has produced a magnificent Book of Remembrance to coincide with this year's pilgrimage to Normandy by a group of D-Day veterans, the Regimental Band and a guard of honour from the Queen's Own Rifles of Canada serving members. Memorial plaques were unveiled at several locations of historical significance to the Regiment to honour those members of the Regiment who died during the assault landing on D Day and in subsequent battles.

This Book of Remembrance contains a brief regimental history in both official languages and the regimental number, rank, name and in many cases the age of all members of the Regiment who were killed in action or who died from wounds suffered during battles. The names are listed by the cemetery in which they are buried giving the location of each grave and the date on which death occurred. It also lists the names of Queen's Own Rifles members who died while serving with other units.

Only eleven copies of the leather bound Book of Remembrance were printed due to the high cost. Copies of these leather bound Books of Remembrance, suitably inscribed, were presented to the Mayors of Bernieres-sur-Mer, Anguerny, Giberville, Les Mesnil Patry and Anisy in June of this year by the Queen's Own Rifles contingent that travelled to Normandy to take part in the dedication ceremonies.

Readers of "The Powder Horn" will be pleased to note that fifty copies of this Book of Remembrance which are Buckam bound are available in the Regimental Kit Shop at a cost of $40.00 each plus a handling and mailing charge of $5.00. It is anticipated that these copies will be sold quickly so if you are interested in acquiring a copy don't hesitate to order yours now.

MILITARY HISTORY BOOKS

Dr. Bill McAndrew, a military historian, who served with the 1st and 2nd Battalions and the Regimental Depot of the Regular Force from 1951 to 1963 in Calgary, Korea, Germany and Ghana has informed the editor of "The Powder Horn" that he has co-authored two books in recent years in which the Queen's Own Rifles played a significant part. The books are titled Normandy 1944: The Canadian Summer and Liberation: Canadians in Europe, 1944-45. His most recent book, launched by the Minister of National Defence at the Canadian War Museum, is titled Canadians and the Italian Campaign, 1943-45.

THE KOREAN WAR WALL OF REMEMBRANCE DEDICATION

The Wall of Remembrance to commemorate the sacrifice made by Canadians who participated in the Korean War was unveiled at Meadowvale Cemetery near Brampton, Ontario on 27 July 1997. In attendance were a number of diplomatic, political and government dignitaries, a large group of Korean veterans and their families and friends. Conducting the religious service were Pastor T.M.C. Marsaw, a former Commanding Officer of the 1st Battalion, and Reverend W. Mann and Father A.M. Guevremont.

Made of grey Barre granite, the Wall of Remembrance is about 200 feet in length and gently curves in conformance with a driveway. Sloping gently at 50 degrees, the two foot high Wall is built in a retaining wall fashion and consists of six or seven sections on each side of the central portion. Sections hold four rows of plaques arranged in alphabetical order of surnames reading from left to right.

The central feature of the Memorial is a rectangular block flanked by two wings. The block contains the Korean Veterans Association and the United Nations insignias as well as the "patches" of 25th Brigade and 1st Commonwealth Division. There is a list of all Canadian units, corps, ships and air squadrons that participated in the Korean War and during the peacekeeping period. A poem by Jack LaChance of the PPCLI and a verse from Laurence Binyan's "For the Fallen" appear on adjacent wings.

The Wall contains 516 plaques giving the regimental number, rank, name, regiment, date of death and the age of those who died while serving during the Korean War and the peacekeeping period.

Six members of the Queen's Own Rifles of Canada whose names appear on individual plaques are:

Lt N.M. Anderson
Cpl N.P. Ferland
Maj P.E. Gower
Sgt G.W. Koch
Rfn G.P. Reid
Lt M.C. Vipond

A REGIMENTAL SNIPPET FROM THE REGIMENTAL HISTORIAN

Things I Wish I Had Never Said

During the stay on Salisbury Plain of the Third Battalion,C.E.F.,before it proceeded to France in February 1915,the Commanding Officer made some remarks that forever stuck in the memory of the men of the Third Battalion.Pte.E.Seaman remembered the Commanding Officer - always "the perfect gentleman" - being aghast when he was told that some of the men were "cooty" ridden,i.e.verminous.

Appalled,horrified, and no doubt thinking of the disgrace should the news get out, the Commanding Officer assembled the battalion and issued the ultimate threat."Boys,very shortly you will be going to France. You will be received...by the nobility...so clean yourselves up.I will not take one lousy man to France."

Ever afterward at post-war reunions and dinners, and whenever the veterans of the Third Battalion assembled,his words were fed back to him,causing uproarious mirth and,probably,a blush as deep in hue as the gorget patches this officer went on to wear as Brigadier-General and General Officer Commanding,4th Canadian Brigade,as of November 1915.

Who was this Commanding Officer?

He commenced his service as a Rifleman in July 1881,was commissioned in the 2nd Battalion,Queen's Own Rifles of Canada in April 1887, and assumed command of the Third Battalion,C.E.F.,on September 22,1914.

He was Major-General Robert Rennie,CB,CMG,DSO,MVO,VD.General Rennie ,ever a strong supporter of the Regiment,attended every regimental function until his death at the age of 87 in 1949.

In Pace Paratus.
