Dear Friends,

MESSAGE FROM COUNCILLOR SANDRA YEUNG RACCO

I would like to send my personal congratulations to the Cambridge Food and Wine Society for hosting this Asian Heritage Month celebration in honour of Rifleman Kew Dock Yip of the Queen's Own Rifles of Canada.

Asian Heritage Month provides us with the opportunity to learn more about the achievements of the many Asian-Canadians who have enriched our history through their diverse stories and wonderful contributions. The Province of Ontario is extremely multicultural and having an event honouring cultural appreciation is important to all communities. More importantly, this event honours the life and work of human rights activist, Kew Dock Yip, who worked tirelessly to change the laws segregating both Chinese-Canadians and Chinese immigrants during the last century.

Thank you once again to the Cambridge Food and Wine Society for hosting such an important event in honour of such an important figure in Chinese Canadian history. And to all those in attendance today, I wish you all an enjoyable afternoon celebrating the wonderful history of Asian Heritage Month!

Yours very truly,
