At 0615 "C" Coy was shelled very heavily and at 0710 the line to "K" house was reported out. Report on enemy attack on "K" House On the afternoon 15 Dec the enemy fired shots which landed at haystack at 76986764, this was a magging shot. On the morning 17 Dec the rear section leader at "K" House observed enemy in the hedge at 77205794. He immediately engaged the enemy with his Bren gum Gp and Stengun, the enemy dispersed Immediately after this enemy morter and MG fire from vicinity of Krds 77225765 pinned down the two front sections of "K" House. As this was happening some enemy rushed into the PI HQ from the rear of the house and threw hand grensdes into the HQ, inflicting several casualties. It lee, the PI Comd. was wounded and clambered through a cellar window, he was not seen again. The rear section engaged the attackers but as the enemy shelling was very intense and did not let up, they were forced to withdraw to "C" Coy area. The remaining sections stood fast. A counter-attack by a PI under It. Gauthier was pinned down at MR 76845784 by heavy MC fire. The enemy then brought down a heavy concentration on "K" House forcing the two remaining sections to withdraw. The enemy then occupbed "K" House with about twenty men. Remarks, references Place Date Hour Summary of Events and Information to Appendices and initials Reveille - wet and ground mist 19 Dec44 Plan to attack "K" House - At 0520 hrs 19 Dec 44 a "B" Coy pl under command Lieut A. Deans were to attack and take "K" House. The pl were to group in "O" Coy lines, the section which was to give covering fire were to adv on the right through the NSR's to the haystack at MR 76905766 The assault section with Pl HQ and the mop up section were to advance 200 yds to the left of the Waldgraaf Rd. The covering fire section were to open fire when the Arty fire lifted. Assault section to clear the west orchard at the rear of the house and the house itself. The mop up section to go through and clear the east orchard. The covering section on to take up position north of "K" House on signal (77 grenade) THE ATTACK The Covering section arrived at the MSR's position and were only able to advance 600 yds, when they farmed forced to ground by our own arty and mortar fire. The balance of the Pl arrived at 15 Pl position where they came under enemy mortar fire and suffered five casualties including the Pl comd The assault section and the remainder of the mop up section under Lt Dean moved forward through smoke and took the objective. No small arm fire was encountered from the enemy and the final morning up was done by the assault section owing to the fact that the covering section did not arrive. Reorganization and consolidation was carried out by Lt Deans under considerable difficulty due to enemy small arms fire form the areas 77705806, 77065750 and 77305758. Lt Deans evacuated the casualties but refused to come out himself. Am An 18 set ans stretcher bearer were sent forward and reached the Pl psn Lt Deans called for reinforcements and ammunition. A section from 10 Pl was sent forward, they advanced as far as 13 Pl psn and were pinned down by heavy MC fire from the above mentioned areas. Due to the fact that it was now daylight and the section had 800 yds of open country to cross to reach the pl psn, they withdrew to their original position. Spasmodic mortar and small arms fire continued from the enemy all morning. There was RC enemy equipment or personnel in the post. Our own equipment that had been in the post previous to the enemy's attack in the early hours of the morning 17th was missing. L/Cpl Chard who was in charge of the stretcher bearers led his men forward under heavy fire and evacuated both "B" and "C" Coy casualties. He then returned to

"K" House with the sigs to report to Lieut Deans to ascertain if there were any more casualties, finding there were none he returned again to the Coy Comd. On hearing that there were some wounded left in the fields he returned alone and checked the area thoroughly and finding none he returned to

R V under heavy MG fire. 1800 There was a contact patrol by "D" Coy to contact RWR at 76845942 Patrol report 18-19 Dec
