50th Anniversary Parade (virtual) 30 March 1971 to 30 March 2021

By Captain Ken Kominek, CD

Good Evening Lt-Col Moody, Capt Facey, honoured guests, my fellow corps officers and cadets.

I am going to take the next few minutes and offer you a condensed re-cap of the past 50 years of this great cadet corps 2881 (QUEEN'S OWN RIFLES) ROYAL CANADIAN ARMY CADET CORPS. 50 years ago, on this very day, the corps was authorized and stood up with approximately 30 cadets on strength, another 38 would join before the end of the year. We didn't start out as the Queen's Own Rifles, that honour would come much later. Our first title was simply Scarborough and we were affiliated with 25 (Toronto) Service Battalion. The cadets who paraded then wore the accoutrements of the Royal Canadian Army Service Corps.

The driving force in the corps' birth was Lieutenant-Colonel George Wilfred Horwood who was known as Rudy. Rudy was a veteran of the Second World War and, while a Sgt in the anti-armour platoon, had been wounded in action while serving with the Argyll and Sutherland Highlanders of Canada in Holland.

From the very beginning the Royal Canadian Legion, Branch 258 has been the corps' sponsor. I suspect that our title was changed from Scarborough to Highland Creek in 1972 because of this sponsorship. Highland Creek is also the title of Royal Canadian Legion, Branch 258.

Over the years the legion has provided an area for training and in 1975 made space for a surplus school portable for the corps' use. Currently the legion has graciously allowed a leased industrial trailer on its property to be used as the corps' administration and supply headquarters.

I must give a shout out to the Ladies Axillary who have always provided meals and other support for the cadets whenever asked. Royal Canadian Legion, Branch 73 has also become a true friend of the corps since 2011.

On 07 September 1979 the Queen's Own Rifles of Canada officially replaced 25 (Toronto) Service Battalion as the corps' affiliated unit. I wonder if this is not a date that our cadet corps should also celebrate moving forward.

Just as I suspect the legion of having a hand in our first name change I believe the QOR and the regiment's rifle traditions had influence over the next two title changes. In 1989 we became known as The Scarborough Rifles and twenty-one years later, in 2010, became our current Queen's Own Rifles.

Since its inception, the cadet corps has found its "parade square" at a variety of locations including Sir Oliver Mowat and R.H. King Collegiate, Cardinal Newman High School, Branch 258's Legion Village Home, Joseph Howe Senior Public School, and the Dalton Armoury.

The cadets of 2881 have supported many community parades and events over the years. A very short list includes the Altona Road, the West Hill and the Highland Creek Heritage Day Parades, Cadets Caring for Canada Events, Canada Day Ceremonies and have annually supported the Royal Canadian Legion during its Poppy Campaigns and Services of Remembrance at Pine Hills Cemetery.

Cadets have continuously participated in The Queen's Own Rifles' regimental parades and anniversaries, in the annual QOR Day held at Casa Loma and in 2018 the corps, for the first time, hosted The QOR Maple Leaf Club's Annual Marksmanship Competition.

Seven cadets from 2881 have successfully completed the Canadian Forces Basic Parachutist Course with Cadet Warrant Officer Anthony Cristilli awarded the BGen R.R. Romses Top Jumper Award in 1985. Cadets Abate, Da Silva, Humphrey and Kerr all earned their para wings with us and served or are currently serving with the Queen's Own Rifles.

Some cadets of note from our past include:

Cadet Master Warrant Officer Christopher Langan was awarded Top Candidate of his Army Cadet Leader Instructor Drill and Ceremonial Course and appointed Cadet Regimental Sergeant Major for Final Parade.

Cadet Warrant Officer Imran Khan was appointed Flag Party Commander for the Final Parade of his Army Cadet Leadership & Challenge Course.

Cadet Timothy Vickers placed second on Battalion Sports Day and was also appointed Platoon Commander for the Final Parade of his Army Cadet Leader Course.

Cadet Master Corporal Rajeev Sowamber was awarded the Top Cadet of the Week Brassard during the Basic Leadership Army Drill and Ceremonial Course, awarded the Colonel Commandant Coin during the Expedition Instructor Course and along with Cadet Master Warrant Officer Maya Royer attended the Madawaska Wild Water Regional Army Cadet Expedition.

Cadet Master Warrant Officer Daniel Chow participated in the Maple Leaf Exchange.

Cadet Master Corporal Justin Anger on his Basic Fitness and Sports Course and Cadet Sergeant Dianne Periera on her Basic Drill and Ceremonial Army Course were both awarded the Silver Medallion.

Some other notable dates in the history of the cadet corps include:

1973, 17-18 Mar – Aid to Civil Power Operation Sandbag. Thirty cadets from 2881 participated in efforts to stabilize the Lake Ontario shoreline in Pickering Township after severe storm damage. We should be proud of this as there are very very few cadet corps with operational experience in their histories.

1973, 29 Jun – Cadets from 2881 participated in the official opening of the Scarborough Civic Centre officiated by Her Royal Highness Queen Elizabeth II.

1989, Aug – cadets visited England, hosted by the 2nd Battalion, The Queen's Regiment (The Queen's Own Buffs). Cadet Lieutenant Shaun Bridge, then senior cadet, was honoured by being asked to turn a page in The Queen's Own Rifles of Canada's Book of Remembrance during a ceremony in the Warriors' Chapel at Canterbury Cathedral.

1993, Jun/Jul – cadets tour Washington, D.C. visiting the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier and the Vietnam Memorial. On Canada Day, at the Canadian Embassy, the cadets were presented to General Jean de Chastelain then Canada's Ambassador to the U.S. and a former Chief of the Canadian Defence Staff.

2010, 24 Oct – cadets from our band participated in the Toronto Garrison Concert and Band Performance at Roy Thompson Hall. Yes at one time, maybe two or three times, 2881 had a band.
2016, 04 Jun – 150th Anniversary of the Battle of Ridgeway Parade. All cadets and CIC officers on parade were issued a QOR Remembrance Coin.

2016, 11 Nov – The Cadet Regimental Sergeant Major was appointed Parade Commander during the Toronto Zoo's Annual Remembrance Day Service. 2881 now provides cadets to act as the Vigil Party and Parade Commander annually.

From the first day of its founding the cadet corps has provided a strong foundation for three generations of young people. A number of former cadets have gone on to serve in the Canadian Forces many more cadets have gone on to successful careers in fields such as business, public service and education. They credit their time in the cadet corps for the leadership and organizational skills that assisted them in their success.

For a more complete history of this great cadet corps I encourage you all to check out the Queen's Own Rifles Museum and Archive's website. We are listed under the QOR History dropdown box.

Thank You.
